FOR PRESIDENT,
JAMES A. GARFIELD,
OF OHIO.
FOR VICE PRESIDENT,
CHESTER A. ARTHUR,
OF NEW YORK.

Registration will close on Wednesday at 6 o'clock P.M. Recollect that no citizen can vote next month unless registered this year.

FOR STATE SENATOR.

The GAZETTE appreciates the interest the people take in local politics, and at great pains and expense has gathered a few facts in relation to the candidates. The gentlemen are so very bashful that this has been no small job. In many instances it was necessary to go to friends and relations for information, but the work has been well done, as everything the GAZETTE undertakes is, and the statements given are reliable. At the head of the county ticket stands the name of Dr. Alson Dawson. This gentleman is a native of Franklin county, New York, and is thirty-six years of age. He was educated at St. Lawrence college, and came to Nevada in 1870. After he came here he graduated at the Medical College in San Francisco with high honors. He was selected to deliver the valedictory. As an educator Dr. Dawson's success was very marked. He taught for some time, and was highly appreciated by his pupils, as well as all interested in them. He was elected two years ago to the office of Superintendent of Public Instruction for Washoe county. He has become widely known in this way and through his extensive practice, and is everywhere popular. He is a scholarly looking man, always neatly dressed, wears a heavy chin whisker, turning to gray. As a speaker his utterance is rapid but distinct, his manner earnest and his language precise. His life is singularly pure, and his habits correct. He is not a demonstrative man, but his friendships are strong, and no trust or confidence has ever been betrayed by him. As a Senator, he would be an honor to Washoe county. His dignity and high character would well become the position, and his consistent support of Republican principles and of the Republican party should insure his triumphant election in a Republican county like Washoe.

DEMOCRATIC ENDORSEMENT OF GARFIELD.

"I will tell you whom I think the Republicans should nominate, and whom I consider THE BEST MAN. He is a TRUE MAN, A MAN OF PRINCIPLE, AN HONEST MAN, AND WOULD MAKE A GOOD PRESIDENT FOR US ALL. Personally I consider him the BEST MAN you could nominate. I refer to General JAMES A. GARFIELD, of Ohio." (Thomas A. Hendricks, 1876.)

"I have been his devoted friend for many years, and I am resolved that I never will believe that he does not deserve the affection that I have bestowed upon him. If he would carry the principles which regulate his private life into his public conduct, HE WOULD MAKE THE BEST CHIEF MAGISTRATE THAT WE HAVE EVER HAD." (Jesse Black.)

In the midst of the organized carnival of corruption, which has been going on now for so many weary months and years in Washington, it is really satisfactory to catch glimpse now and then of HONESTY FOR HONESTY'S SAKE, and without consideration of party. General GARFIELD, of Ohio, is a Republican of Republicans, but it is his simple due, which we gladly pay to him, to admit that HE HAS DONE MORE THAN ANY OTHER SINGLE MEMBER OF HIS PARTY, during the late session of Congress, to show that it is not impossible for a man to act with a Congressional majority, and yet to KEEP HIS SELF-RESPECT AND THE RESPECT OF HONEST MEN.—(New York World, before Garfield was a candidate.)

THE REPUBLICAN TIDAL WAVE.

The S. F. Bulletin of the 16th contained this excellent editorial on the political situation:

"The defeat of the Democracy, now so clearly foreshadowed, may after all prove a blessing in disguise for the South. Six months hence the effort of that section to obtain control of the Government will be generally regarded as an idle dream. The consequences of overthrow by the field could never be set aside by an expedient so transparent. There are many able and sagacious statesmen in the South. They ought to have foreseen that the solidification of their section could result in nothing but a solid North. It revived in the most forcible manner the enmities of the war which had been smoldering in ashes. It awakened throughout the whole of the larger section the instinct of self-preservation.

Previous to this most foolish step the work of reconciliation was progressing with great rapidity. Southern business interests had become very prosperous. The politicians at the North who had insisted on keeping alive bitter feeling were retired. The Administration of Hayes, in the broadest sense, was an olive branch extended to the South. Moderate statesmen, such as Evans, Schurz, Sherman, Devens and others of that class, were called to the Cabinet. A Southerner, who had not become a Republican, was given the most influential and far-reaching portfolio in that body. There was nothing whatever of which the South could in reality complain about. The disposition was evident on all sides to help it along. When the plague visited it the strong hand of Northern fraternity was extended for its relief.

But, notwithstanding these many evidences of kindly feeling, fancying that it saw its opportunity, the section in question organized itself into a solid body. By terrorism, violence and fraud it crushed out whatever Republicanism had shown itself within its borders. It gained control of every State in the South, and advancing to the front, with evasive and insincere words on its lips, and depending in the North on a class of politicians fated to betray both sections at the supreme moment, proposed to reverse the results of the war, and recover by political jugglery all that had been lost on the field of battle. There was no mistaking the attitude which it had assumed. The effect was to bring again in the North the 'Stalwarts,' as they were called, to the front. The men who were driven from office because of their persistence in holding up the 'bloody shirt,' were again placed in command.

The outcome is the mighty rush of a Republican tidal wave, taking its rise in Vermont, flowing over the country and sweeping everything before it. On the 2d of November it will submerge every vestige of dough-faction. The solid North is no longer a political speculation or dream. Its colossal dimensions are already outlined. It will be the great political factor of the future, until the South gives up its sectionalism. Already some signs of a crumbling away are visible there. There is now no certainty that the Democrats will carry Delaware or Florida. There is a cloud over Virginia itself. But the Solid South will have to go entirely to pieces before that section can hope to enter upon the really splendid career before it. No party designations can be invented that will cover up and conceal treasonary plots, for the present campaign on the part of the Democrats is entitled to no other name. The North is too keen, too penetrating and too intelligent to be taken in by any scheme that may be set on foot to render all the bloodshed and treasure poured out during the war of no avail. So long as there is a Solid South, so long there will be a solid North, and a solid North growing constantly more angry."

EDITORIAL NOTES.

The bicycle is becoming every day more and more popular in England. The roads of that country are admirably adapted for the vehicle. All the great highways are macadamized, and kept hard and smooth as floor. The whole country is a great garden, the roads lined with majestic old trees and hedges, while every foot of land is under cultivation, or enclosed in magnificent parks. By-paths, open to the public, take the traveller through the heart of the finest estates, and historical associations cluster around every foot of ground. No wonder the bicycle has become popular in such a country. In England, too, the greatest speed has been attained on the wheel. Cortis, an English bicyclist, recently made ten miles in less than thirty minutes, a wonderful rate of speed.

The GAZETTE has had an editor at work for a week studying up the present Eastern question, with a view to enlighten our readers, but the following from Puck covers the whole ground and saves all further anxiety: "The European powers to Dulcigno—Will you surrender? Dulcigno to the European powers—No, I won't. The European powers to Dulcigno—Then we think you're real mean—so there!"

The Republicans held a meeting at Mason valley on Friday evening. There were only local speakers, but everything was booming.

MARRIED.

DICKIE—RICHARDSON—In Reno, Thursday, Oct. 14, 1880, D. Dickey to Miss Carrie Richardson.

DILLON—MANSFIELD—In Reno, Oct. 17, 1880, John Dillon to Miss Julia Mansfield.

NOTTINGS.

The Crystal Peak brewery is under way again, and making excellent beer.

The Jones & Kinkaid mill was started up yesterday on trial. Everything run well.

T. Barnett has a potato in his show case from his own garden, that weighs five pounds.

H. H. Beck spoke at Franktown on Saturday night on the subject of Sharon, Hymer and Lamb.

J. J. Harbinger has been arrested for an assault on Charles Hudson. Harbinger will be tried to-morrow.

The Reform Club meeting Saturday evening was well attended, a large number remaining to dance.

A number of candidates and several speakers go to Pyramid on Wednesday next. They will hold a meeting that evening.

The remains of John Johnson were brought to Reno from Red Rock yesterday. The funeral took place this afternoon from the Methodist church.

Grizzly Dan broke into Holt's shop last night and stole a rifle worth $25. He was arrested and the rifle recovered. His trial came on this afternoon.

There will be one feature of the procession this evening particularly worth noticing. Nine out of ten men taking part in the demonstration will wear garments from the White House.

W. Goegel, the jeweler, offered a special premium for the best display of needle work and embroidery at the State Fair. The premium remains unclaimed for. It will be delivered on demand.

The story is told in Wadsworth that since the receipt of the news from Indiana, General Hagerman has become so reduced that his overcoat goes around him three times.

As C. Allen was driving on the Virginia road yesterday he was run into by the team of Hupp Smith and Matt Macklenberg. Allen's buggy was upset in the creek and a lady with him was severely injured.

The community will be perfectly thunderstruck at the contents of the 50-cent column to-day. Nothing like the announcement made there by the I X L has ever been seen in the State. Mr. Myerstein is bound to sell his goods, and men and women who go there to buy are sure to get bargains.

Successful speaking.

Quite an enthusiasm was created at Wadsworth on Saturday evening by the Republican meeting held at Gladning's hall. George Gregg presided, and Senator Powning of the Journal, opened with an eloquent speech, half an hour long. He made many telling points, and his remarks were highly praised.

T. F. Laycock recited a poem on how Lincoln would have voted, which created a great deal of feeling.

Hon. T. V. Julian followed with an impromptu speech of spirit and power.

The candidates who were present were introduced and made some remarks.

P. N. Marker, Frank Bell, Nat Holmes, N. W. Ross, D. B. Boyd, T. G. Hermann, Orrin Ring and others were there.

The boys took the town by storm, and were kept talking nearly all night.

West Notes.

The vote in Verdi next month will be close, and the Democrats are thought to have the best chance to get a majority. The precinct gave a majority for Hayes in '76, but there has been a considerable change of population in the place since then.

Dr. Hogan delivered an address to a Verdi audience last Saturday evening, on the subject of greenbacks. He had a goodly number of listeners, and spoke well, though to bad purpose.

The Verdi Plating Mill has finished the contract for the Bridgport court house. The new blower is doing fine work in disposing of the shavings, which are either forced into the furnace or into a kiln erected for their consumption. A new engine is shortly to be put up, to give increased power.

LATEST FROM PLUMAS.

The Races, the Music and the Pavilion at the Greenville Fair—Reno's Representative.

GREENVILLE, Oct. 16, 1880.

The Greenville Fair has three principal features. The most important and attractive one is the music; the second, the pavilion; the third, the races. There are two bands here, and they play alternate pieces in the grand stand, and around the town. The Greenville band is composed of boys and young men who live in this village. They have had some training and play quite well, but there are several of them that never heard another band in their lives until this week. W. D. Fletcher, the jeweler, is leader. The other band is from the Plumas Eureka mine, and is composed entirely of miners who work underground. There is not a musician among them, in the sense that term implies, and yet, as a whole, the company plays so well together and each does his own part so perfectly, that they will rank as the second best band in California. They play all the latest music, for which they are subscribers. Everything in the way of operatic selections, overtures, marches, etc., comes to them as quick as it is published, and they never quit until every man can handle his music perfectly. They practice two nights a week, an hour and a half or two hours each time. It has been organized over five years, but has changed its personnel almost entirely, and has been broken up several times. Its present leader is James S. Patterson, a Scotchman who learned his art in his native land. The band has 18 pieces besides the leader.

IT MEMBERS ARE

Abelom Bourrett, solo cornet; Mathew Rogers, solo cornet; John Peters, rephiano cornet; James Whyte, second B flat cornet; Moses Symons, solo tenor; Samuel Gregory, 1st tenor; Wm. J. Gregory, 2nd tenor; Tom Ellory, 1st baritone; Richard Rogers, 2nd baritone; Henry Shackerly, tenor trombone; Henry Pearn, 2nd tenor trombone; Richard gear, bass trombone; Wm. Rogers, solo euphonium; Henry Roberts, bass euphonium; Wm. H. Peller, 1st E flat bass; A. Jenkins, 2nd E flat bass; Humphrey Koskins, bass drum; Samuel Pearce, side drum. Last night the Eureka band gave a concert in Proctor Hall, which was an immense success.

THE PAVILION

Is looking exceedingly well. The show of Plumas county fruits is very satisfactory. There are choice brands of apples, peaches, plums, pears, etc., although this has not been the best year for fruit. I have seldom seen finer potatoes than have been entered by Mr. Flournoy, of Genesee valley, and by others in different parts of the county. Pumpkins, squashes, corn, oats, wheat, etc., are represented. The merchants have done themselves much credit. Several handsome displays of photography are made. Some fine jewelry and watches, much fancy articles, some pictures and quite a stock of dry goods are tastefully arranged. Miss Harvey, of Reno, has some fine hats and bonnets, no end of ribbons, flowers and silks, and a magnificent outfit consisting of a figure arrayed in all the wonders of a silk and velvet dress, a handsome hat, neck gear and presumably of fine undergarments sacred from reportorial pencils. Reno is pretty well represented. Besides your reporter there is Captain Bragg, E. A. Vasey, Alfred Jose, Talbot, the trainee of Vic, S. W. Clifford, Misses Harvey and Taylor, and Keyea, the owner of Fred B and Brushy John. Frank LaPoint is over from Susanville. C. W. Birney is now living here. H. C. Fulmer has been here all summer working at his trade. L. J. Stinson, the photographer, alternates between here and his old home in Quincy, and is doing well. Geo. James is driving Hammond & Wilson's stage from here to Genesee valley. M. S. Pechner has a neat barber shop. R. G. Carter has been here all summer painting.

THE RACES

On Tuesday and Wednesday I gave you. On Thursday there was better fun and more people. The weather continued perfect. The two-year old trot, mile heats, was won by Will Graham, Rose Thompson second. The last heat was made in 4 minutes and one-half of a second. Roanoke and Washoe trotted the second race. Roanoke took first money; fast heat 2:33. The double team trot was won by Newman, James and Banta distanced. Time 3:14%. Dr. Gray set his double team around the track in 3:10%. Yesterday's first race, was a free-for-all between Ashley and Wm. Tell. Ashley took the first, second and fourth heats, the last in 2:34. The next was a mile and a half dash between Overland, Pat and Cousin Vic. It was a close and exciting race, Vic won all the way until near the wire, when Pat shot ahead and won in 2:50. To-day there was a special trotting match, free for all, for a purse of $200. Between Brushy John, Ashley and Wm. Tell. Brushy John won the first heat in 2:30, the fastest time ever made in Plumas county. Ashley won the race, however, taking the third, fourth and fifth heats. Time 3:05, 2:50% and 2:32%.

Free Tie.

Any one who drives in to the Republican jubilee this evening, is welcome to tie his team in Hymer's & Comstock's corral. Everybody is well come, Democrat or Republican.

FAST TIME.

A Wonderful Feat of Pedestrianism. The Huffaker's House Truth says:

We believe that Washoe county can claim the honor of having the fastest pedestrian in the world, at least for a seven-mile heat. As the writer of this article was driving from Reno out to the "Blue Ribbon" dance at Huffaker's, on the evening of the 29th of July last, he noticed a cloud of dust on the hill by Kinkead's house. The line of dust was extended so rapidly that the driver thought there must be a race going on; he immediately hurried his horses to the top of the hill to get a better view. On reaching Mr. Lake's residence one of the party said it looked like a man running. The driver urged his horses to their utmost speed, and overtook the pedestrian in the vicinity of Mr. Varian's, when he noticed, for the first time, that the pedestrian was walking a square heel and toe gait. The only one he had was a very light cane. As the driver passed him, which had to be done on the run, as no ordinary trotter could do it, he noticed that the pedestrian was perspiring very freely, and used his bandanna to wipe the sweat and dust from his brow. He took no further notice of him until after he arrived at Huffaker's. The driver had hardly time to hitch his horses when he heard the pedestrian inquire in a very anxious manner: "Has the schoolmarm arrived?" The driver was almost thunderstruck to think that the pedestrian had arrived as soon as he did. The distance was seven miles; time, 35 minutes. If we are not mistaken, this is the fastest time on record.

We omit the pedestrian's name, as he is very sensitive, but will say that he is quite a favorite with the ladies, and is often seen around a druggist in Reno, where he prepares a wonderful kind of hair oil that is sold in immense quantities to the ladies of Reno.

The Demonstration To-Night.

There will be an immense Republican demonstration this evening, in celebration of the result of the October elections. The grand torch-light procession will form at the Pavilion and move at 7 o'clock. The following is the line of march: Center street to Commercial Row, west to West street, north on West to Fourth, east on Fourth to Lake, south on Lake to Plaza, west on Plaza to Sierra, south on Sierra to Second, east on Second to Virginia, north on Virginia to Commercial Row, east on Commercial Row to the Nevada theater.

Speeches will be delivered in the theater, where the band will be in attendance. Hon. C. S. Varian will be the principal speaker. Hon. Thos. Wren of Eureka, a Republican candidate for the U. S. Senatorship, is in town, and will probably address the meeting. All Republicans are requested to take part in the procession, and make the demonstration more representative of the strength of the party in this country.

Bodie and Mill Creek.

A. H. Wilbur of Bodie is in Reno, on his way to San Francisco. He reports the sanitary condition of the town as much improved. At this time last year pneumonia was a terrible scourge in Bodie, people dying nearly every day from the disease. Pneumonia is almost unknown this fall. The town has now an excellent system of water works and good drainage. The streets are thoroughly wet down early in the morning, and there is no dust. There are many idle men in Bodie, but business continues good. The mines are doing well, and the development of the district is steadily going forward.

Mr. Wilbur thinks that Mill Creek, Hiner district, is destined to become a large and important camp; that its development is only a matter of time. J. E. Baker, who used to be on the Gazette, is editor and proprietor of the Homer Mining Index, an excellent weekly paper which is doing much to advance the interests of the section in which it is published. Mr. Baker means to stay with the camp.

Hurrah For Garfield!

On Thursday next a grand barbecue in the afternoon, a torchlight procession and speaking in the evening is the programme at Sacramento. A car-load of Republicans is going from Reno. The fare will be $7 for the round trip. Twenty thousand visitors will be provided for. The following speakers will be present: Hon. Stanley Matthews, of Cincinnati, Gov. Stewart L. Woodford, the greatly eloquent "boy in blue" of New York, Senator Newton Booth, Hon. J. M. Shaffer, A. A. Sargent, John P. Jones, F. M. Pixley, M. M. Estes, G. W. Tyler, Gen. J. F. Miller, C. N. Fox, F. L. Low, H. F. Page, Geo. T. Bromley, J. A. Eagon, I. S. Belcher, G. G. Blanchard, A. L. Hart, W. A. Cheney and many others. Parties wanting to go will notify Mr. Higgins at once.

Fine Dry Goods.

Under the head of New To-day will be found the advertisement of F. Steinhardt, the importer of fine foreign and domestic dry goods, Sacramento, Cal. Any of the merchants or traders of Reno or neighboring towns who have to send away for goods will find in Mrs. Steinhardt's abundant stock anything they can call for, and at satisfactory prices. He sends out samples of everything on his shelves so that no one need be in the dark. He is in every way reliable and worthy of confidence, and any money sent him will be perfectly safe. Read his advertisement.

RUSTLE.

Any one who drives in to the Republican jubilee this evening, is welcome to tie his team in Hymer's & Comstock's corral. Everybody is well come, Democrat or Republican.

The Late Homicide in a Bodie Stage.

The account which has been published of the shooting of Fried by Moody, on a Bodie stage last week, was incorrect in some important particulars. It was stated that Moody shot Fried because the latter would not make room for him in the coach. That was not the case. A passenger just in from Bodie gives a correct version of the affair. He says that H. Moody, who did the shooting, is an old man much esteemed by those who know him. He was formerly Postmaster of Lundy, and was on his way to his old home in Greenfield, Mass. Before the stage left Bodie the passengers congregated in a saloon and "drank heartily." Moody, it appears, became enraged with liquor. The conversation in a Bodie stage naturally turned upon the subject of robbery, and Moody became excited over the topic. Drawing out a pistol, he said: "I'm not going to have any road agent rob me," and shot the passenger seated opposite him. It is not known whether the shooting was accidental or intentional, but those who know Moody say that it could not have been malicious. Moody was lodged in jail at Aurora with Sharpe, the stage-driver.

The Bodie Free Press of Saturday

contains some additional particulars of the affair. Fried's wound is pronounced grave, but not necessarily fatal. All who know Moody were astonished to hear of the shooting. Moody denies any intention of shooting, saying that he was changing his pistol from one pocket to another when it went off. The Esmeralda Grand Jury found an indictment against Moody, and his trial was set for last Saturday. The driver had hardly time to hitch his horses when he heard the pedestrian inquire in a very anxious manner: "Has the schoolmarm arrived?" The driver was almost thunderstruck to think that the pedestrian had arrived as soon as he did. The distance was seven miles; time, 35 minutes. If we are not mistaken, this is the fastest time on record.

We omit the pedestrian's name, as he is very sensitive, but will say that he is quite a favorite with the ladies, and is often seen around a druggist in Reno, where he prepares a wonderful kind of hair oil that is sold in immense quantities to the ladies of Reno.
